

CENTRAL MASS SINGLES GOLF

Central Mass Chapter - American Singles Golf Association — August 2007

Central Mass Hosts Cape Cod Multi-Chapter Weekend!

Summer 2007

The Central Mass Chapter of the ASGA is in the middle of a very active golf season. The month of July has tournaments every weekend and a 36-hole hooky day at Bretwood Golf Course in Keene, NH. There has been excellent participation at recent golf outings including two events with 32 players each at Leicester CC and Blissful Meadows GC. Many new guest players have come to play in several outings, and some of them have joined the chapter. The chapter membership has grown close to 70 members, up from 60 to start the year.

Upcoming events include a Charity Team Shamble at Kettle Brook Golf Course in Paxton, MA. This charity outing will include a donation to the Driving4Life organization which supports ALS research through the game of golf. The friendly rivalry Ryder Cup Tournament has the Hartford Chapter hosting the Central Mass (CM) Chapter at the Cedar Knob Golf Course in Somers, CT on August 11. The CM Chapter is the defending champion of the Ryder Cup.

Golf Chair Kim Tartarini has been putting in an energetic and top-notch effort in organizing and running the tournaments. The members and guest players have all recognized her for doing a great job.

Coming in mid-September the CM Chapter is hosting a Multi-Chapter Event at Cape Cod, MA. We are hoping that ASGA members from across the nation will join our chapter members for a fun-filled golf weekend on Cape Cod. We will be playing two nice courses in the Falmouth, MA area, and a New England Clambake is included in the getaway weekend package.

There's more golf to play so we hope to see you join us for fun and friendship on the fairways of the Central Mass area.

The Central Mass Chapter invites all to join us in North Falmouth on Cape Cod, Massachusetts, which is situated a short distance past the Cape Cod Canal off of Route #28. The Falmouth area was settled in 1660 and is the owner of many Historic sights, many of which are connected with the sea. Fall is considered the nicest time to be on the Cape by many.

Nature, Beauty & Adventure

Cape Cod is at its natural best for your fall vacation. Cape Cod fall vacation walks take you along crimson cranberry bogs, pine forest and salt marshes. Bike trails follow country roads and seashore paths. Fall days are warm and nights are crisp with ocean and sky a brilliant, sparkling blue. Cape Cod golf courses are peaceful and inviting, with the leaves aglow in bright oranges and reds. Activities are plentiful, from seaside festivals and craft fairs to the performing arts. Let the Cape surround you with its vast beauty this fall.

Our Stay will be at the Sea Crest Resort, which is situated on Old Silver Beach and has its own private beach of white sands that are well maintained. The resort faces west and has fiery sunsets that settle into the seascape. Also the dining room is facing the water for a wonderful dining experience to go along with the good food served.

Woods Hole, which is a short distance, is home to several places of interest. It houses the first tanks with fish open to public viewing.

Whale watching can be done from Barnstable Harbor. Go to www.whale.net for more info.

The Town of Falmouth just a few miles away has many shops and restaurants for your shopping pleasure.

For those who need to get more exercise after golf you can take a bike ride from Falmouth to Woods Hole which winds through natural settings from woodlands, marsh, swamp and salt ponds to seascape across an ancient plain.
