President’s Message

Dear Members,

It is with regret that I inform you two of our members, Donna Beland and Susan Kaminski, sadly experienced the passing of their mother and father respectively. Please remember Donna, Susan and their families in your thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.

The first chapter golf outing is under our belt, thanks to our host Lisa Rademacher we had a great day at Rolling Greens. We are well on our way to a great season of outings and events.

Check out the 2012 golf schedule - do you have a favorite course not on the schedule? Contact Geri or Camille to discuss adding your fav to the line-up. Same goes for social events, have an idea or a favorite activity you would like to share with the group? Give Sandy a call to discuss and schedule the activity. By the way, our annual “Staycation” picnic is planned for July 28 at “Gus’s Retreat” on Cupsaw Lake in Ringwood. Mark your calendar for a fun filled time; this is definitely a “save the date” event.

Remember to spread the NJ-ASGA word. Do your part and encourage prospective members to attend our chapter meetings, mingles, outings and social events. Let’s look forward to a prosperous year of membership growth, friendship and great golf in 2012.

~Linda Madernini/President

Golf
Welcome home to all our members who spent the winter away. Golf season in N.J. has finally begun. We are excited about the outings we have planned. There are 5 Saturday, 1 week day and 2 weekend outings on the schedule so far. The dates and courses are listed at the back of the newsletter. We would really appreciate members stepping up and planning a few more outings. We are also reaching out to new members to pick their favorite course, contact a veteran member to help them and add either a week day or Saturday or Sunday outing to our schedule. Geri and I will gladly help anyone in any way we can. Looking forward to seeing you on the course!

As this edition of the newsletter goes to print we are happy to share 2 additional outings thanks to Sandy Fink and Flo Wiener.

Membership
Dear Members,
We have three new members since our last newsletter!

Jane Donlan, from Waldwick, joined in late March and Will Obecny, from Pompton Lakes, joined in early April. Many of our members greeted Will and Jane at the April dinner meeting at Maggiano’s. Ann Marie Miskewicz, from Vernon, joined in mid-April.

We look forward to meeting these new members at many of our upcoming outings, dinners, and social events.
Our group is growing – keep up the great promotion that you all do.

~Jane Kalfus/Pat Pack, Membership Co-Chairs

Social Events
Hi Members,
Ah, Mother Nature—what a Woman!! After an unusual winter and record-breaking temps, She managed to bring us an amazing floral display bursting with color! And those tree blossoms, wow! But, of course she has to water “her garden” and get our green courses ready. Hopefully she won’t “rain on our parade” of outings.

Circle Saturday, July 28th on your calendars. We have scheduled a wonderful event for you! Our friend, Gus Eggerling is offering his lakeside “resort” for our summer picnic. He’s even including canoes and paddleboats in the deal. How cool is that!! We, in turn, will supply the food and drink. Sounds like a fun-filled day to share with friends to me. Let me know if you can make it. Details to follow. THANKS Gus for your very generous offer!!

Meantime, I am looking into possible boat rides around NYC; a sailboat ride on a schooner, (weekend afternoon), jazz cruise (Sun. eve.) or maybe, a weekday architectural cruise.

This year’s free concert schedule will be coming out soon. Let me know if something comes up in your area. In fact, I bet some of you guys can find some interesting social events for us; music venues, theater, attractions & etc. Please share and I will help make it happen!! Thanks in advance for your cooperation.

Happy Spring.. See you soon,
~Sandy Fink, Social Events Chair

Rules and More Rules
Recording golf score higher than actually made.
Q. In tournament golf, players keep each other's scores. The scorer is called the marker, and the marker keeps score for the competitor.
In the 1968 Masters, Roberto De Vicenzo's final day round saw him shoot a 31 on the front nine and a 34 on the back nine for a score of 65. However, De Vicenzo's playing partner and marker on Sunday was, Tommy Aaron. Unfortunately Aaron put down a 4 for De Vicenzo on the 17th hole when the Argentinian actually had made a birdie 3. The submitted scorecard totaled a final round of 66 rather than the correct score of 65. The critical issue, a 65 would tie De Vicenzo with Bob Goalby forcing a Monday Masters playoff.

What was the correct ruling?
A. Both De Vicenzo and Tommy Aaron were disqualified for submitting an incorrect scorecard
B. Tommy Aaron was awarded a 2 stroke penalty for recording an incorrect score on his competitor's score card, De Vicenzo's score was corrected by tournament officials to the correct score of 65. The Monday playoff was one of the most exciting in Masters' history.
C. De Vicenzo's score of 66 stood as submitted. Tommy Aaron received no penalty.

AND THE ANSWER IS:
The answer is C. De Vicenzo's score stood as submitted. He came in second to Bob Goalby in the 1968 Masters. His incorrect scorecard cost him the a playoff opportunity.

Rule 6-6.d applies. The competitor is responsible for the correctness of his score recorded for each hole on his score card. If he returns a score for any hole higher than actually taken, the score as returned stands.
De Vicenzo finished second at the 1968 Masters and Bob Goalby was the winner. When De Vicenzo realized his mistake, he exclaimed "What a stupid I am!" Words that live on in golf history. De Vicenzo never won another major, although he did win the PGA Tour's Houston Open three weeks later. Tommy Aaron won the 1973 Masters, where, ironically, he caught a mistake on his scorecard made by his playing partner.

A tradition established years ago at our Memorial Day weekend event, members of the American Singles Golf Association have taken time out at our Saturday evening dinner to recognize members who have served in the Armed Forces.

Memorial Day should be a time to remember, recognize and honor those who have fought for those things which we now take for granted, freedom being our utmost prize.

This year, instead of just recognizing members during our event in Pinehurst, we’re establishing a web page to honor our member veterans. Any veteran of any service era are invited to submit a brief bio about themselves and what involvement they had. We will post this in late May and send out an announcement to all members to go to the site and personally show your thanks for what they have contributed.

We ask chapter leaders to send out notices to members asking them to go to www.SinglesGolf.com/honor and complete a short form. This site will be live on May 10 and ready for contributions from our veteran members.

Join Fellow Members in Pinehurst for Memorial Day Weekend!

We’re just about a month away from our annual Memorial Day Weekend and participation is already up to 150 members, well ahead of registration same time last year. If you’ve never been to Pinehurst, think of it as “America’s Golf Headquarters.” Site of the ’51 Ryder Cup and past and future U. S. Opens, you’ll feel the history the moment you walk into the Carolina Hotel. Was Donald Ross thinking of you when he planned his courses? Maybe, but your fellow members are thinking of you and hoping you’ll attend.

So find a roommate or we’ll get you one.

This reunion on Memorial Day Weekend has shown to be ASGA’s largest-attended event each year. Optional rounds on the day-of-arrival (Thursday at Pinehurst) as well as day-of-departure (Sunday at Tobacco Road Golf Club — Rated #4 Public Course in the U. S. by Golf World magazine and a Top 100 Golf Digest) are being offered as well. A registration form is enclosed will be enclosed with this newsletter and www.SinglesGolf.com/Pinehurst will allow you to register online. Do it now before rooms sell-out!

Did You Know???

• Your chapter leaders have the ability to send out emails to its members using the national database. If a member joins on Monday, a chapter leader can send out a memo on Monday night. Is your chapter communicating using the service we provide and you pay for?

• Each chapter has an obligation to provide to members a monthly newsletter. Your chapter writes, ASGA National sends it out. This newsletter is also your PR piece to potential members. Communicating solely by email blurbs doesn’t give leaders the opportunity to thank volunteers in a meaningful way. Failing to produce a newsletter will cause your chapter to lose your portion of the dues. This is a mandatory service that must happen each month.

• ASGA recently switched to a new email service, iContact.com. They’re great to work with but they have strict rules. Recently, all of our Yahoo members were taken off the national list because when we sent out an email, more than .1% (yes, that’s point one percent, or one-tenth of one percent) of Yahoo members complained that they were receiving spam from us. As you know, we don’t send out spam, ham or lamb. So, just to make certain you are on the ASGA National email list, go to www.SinglesGolf.com/AddGuest. We know you’re a member, but use this form as it gets you back on the list. Only members with Yahoo.com email addresses need to do this.

• Every ASGA chapter is born with a set of bylaws. The bylaws outline how chapters should be run. Your Board of Directors is essentially in control of how things are decided within your chapter. A chapter without bylaws is like playing golf without rules. Go to www.SinglesGolf.com/bylaws
