GOLF CALENDAR
As of now we do not have anything scheduled for March and we'll see how the weather looks as we get into the month. We will schedule an outing for March if the weather turns out promising. We hoped for a lot of rain to help cure the drought somewhat. AND WE GOT IT!!!! We will send out a notice in advance for our March outing. In the meantime, if anyone wants to volunteer to run an event, just let Dwight know where and when. Can always use some help.

MONTHLY MEETING
We have been meeting at The Olive Garden across from Arden Fair. This is just around the corner from Coco’s, our former meeting place. Just if you wanted to know, Coco’s is going to re open as a BLACK BEAR DINER. We will meet this month at Olive Garden here on Tuesday, March 7th. Social starts at about 6:30, with meeting following before 7:15. Everyone is welcome. We are always looking for volunteers as we need a secretary and a social chair.

SILVERADO IS APRIL 2ND…
SIGN UP NOW
Mark down Sunday, April 2nd. We will make what has become an annual event by playing at Silverado Resort in Napa. They host the Safeway Open (formerly Fry’s.com Open) every fall and the courses are rated near the best in California. This year we will be back on the South Course. Our outing will include lunch and you can have the famous Silverado Burger which is shaped like a Hot Dog!! Cost is $99 and will be a pre pay. Deadline for payment is March 17th. Send a check, payable to ASGA, to ASGA, C/O Dwight Pattison, 7017 Rawley Way, Elk Grove, CA 95757. We need players for this outing, thus guests are welcome. Any questions, e-mail Dwight at dwight@pattisonappraisals.com

ANNUAL WEEKEND OUTING
On the heels of our successful outing in Monterey, we are now trying to plan something for this fall. Usually we do not go right back to the same place as it seems the second time we just do not get as good a turnout. So this fall we will head back up to either Reno or Carson City for our fall getaway. More news on that when we sign a contract with one of the hotels. Should have a location and date in next month’s (April) newsletter.

Rules and More Rules
Testing sand in adjacent bunker
The green was framed and protected by left and right side sand filled bunkers.
Scott's approach shot landed in the left bunker. As Scott walked toward his ball he passed the bunker on the right. Scott hopped in the bunker on the right and took a couple of practice strokes causing sand to fly. He then proceeded to the bunker on the left in which his ball was lying. At this point Larry said, “Scott, add two strokes to your score, you can't test the conditions of the bunker.” Scott of course protested pointing out to Larry the obvious, he did not test the condition of the bunker in which his ball was lying. What is the correct ruling?
A. Larry is partially correct, you cannot test a like hazard. However the penalty for testing a like hazard is one, not two, strokes.
B. Larry is correct. Two stroke penalty. You can not test a like hazard.
C. Larry was incorrect. No harm no foul. Scott did not test the bunker from which he would be playing. Scott did nothing that was prohibited. Testing a similar hazard is not only allowed, it is considered prudent.

The correct answer: B.
Rule 13-4, Ball in Hazard; Prohibited Action, is the applicable rule. The rule prohibits testing the condition of the hazard in which your ball lays or any similar hazard. The penalty for breach of the rule is Loss of hole in match play and a two stroke penalty in stroke play.

ASGA’s Memorial Day Weekend at the Marriott Evergreen Resort — Stone Mountain, GA
May 25 — 28, 2017

An Official “Reunion” Event

Some things are slow to get off the ground. But not this time. We have seen a surge in registrations for our annual Memorial Day golf weekend at Stone Mountain. Memorial Day Weekend is, without question, our largest attended event of the year. One of the messages we’re receiving from our attendees is that Stone Mountain is a convenient location to drive or fly to. Just a hop, skip and a 9-iron will get you to the front door from downtown Atlanta. The Marriott Evergreen Resort is located inside of a state park. Two 18-hole courses line the entrance as you come into the park along with some great views of this big rock poking itself out of the earth. The side of the American Singles Golf Association  March, 2017 SinglesGolf.com/TheNextShot mountain has sculpture taking-up the size of three acres.

Do this trip on your own for this holiday weekend and you would pay $877 per person, double occupancy.  The ASGA price is $569. Room by yourself and it goes to $819.

Stone Mountain is just a half-hour drive out of Atlanta, so, if you’re flying, you’ll certainly want to fly into Atlanta’s Hartsfield-Jackson (ATL).

We’ve reserved 80 rooms on peak nights so we can take as many as 160 on this trip.  Links to the hotel, golf course and online registration are at www.SinglesGolf.com/MemorialDay

Two More Events this Spring: East + West
East: Orlando’s Golfpalooza — April 20-23, 2017 Think Deadline: March 21, 2017.  All ASGA members are invited to join other ASGA members for a 3-day Golfpalooza.
See flyer in this newsletter.  Visit SinglesGolf.com/Golfpalooza and the registration form at SinglesGolf.com/GolfpaloozaReg

West: Phoenix’s Golf Sedona! — April 21-23, 2017
Think Desert: Sedona is a special place in our country’s landscape.  For less than $350, you can have a weekend of fun!  See details in the flyer enclosed with this newsletter or go to

Tremblant / Mont-Tremblant,
Quebec, Canada
Tentative Dates — July 16, 17, 18, 19, 2017
I believe it’s been a good 18+ years since we last visited Tremblant, about 90 minutes outside of Montreal.  We had a small group of about 24 people but we drank Canada Dry.  We were such a young organization then and only 24 attended.  They have two hilly courses: The Giant and The Devil.  And the town itself offers so much.  Tremblant.ca is the virtual website but we’re looking to do a non-virtual visit in July of this year and they promise much cooler weather than we had last summer.
So make a note on your calendar, talk to your friends, talk it up, down and sideways.  Look for updates early this month.

River Cruise Survey: 291 Now Say “Yes!”
Paris, France — September/October, 2018 We’ve already made some inroads with Le Golf National, site of the 2018 Ryder Cup competition.  They welcome memers of ASGA to play the Ryder Cup course after the close of the 2018 Ryder Cup, but it will be subject to availability.  Dates for the 2018 Ryder Cup are September 28-30.  This event is 18-months out and will be the first river cruise offered by ASGA.

For the past three months, ASGA has surveyed its membership to see the level of interest.  Not surprisingly, 291 members would “definitely be interested” in a river cruise in 2018 and 94% felt the Seine River would be the river to cruise.

Our hopes are to “buy-out” the ship by filling-up 49 cabins, which will take no more than 98 members to do so, a lesser amount if some room by themselves.  By buying-out the ship, we’ll have more latitude on certain things and can certainly party “ASGA-style” without having people look at us wishing they were single!

Although we’re not officially announcing it yet, the pieces are being assembled and we want to put together another awesome experience for you.  We anticipate visiting Versailles, historic monuments in Rouen, the English Channel villages of Etretat and Honfleur, Jumieges Abbey, one of the great Benedictines of France, Chateau Gaillard, Claude Monet’s home and a lot more.  At our halfway point on the cruise on the Seine River, we’ll visit the D-Day beaches of Normandy.

A once in a lifetime opportunity, by definition, only occurs one time so this may just be it for you!  So, talk it up.  Think about whom you’d like to room with to cut some cost.  Later this month, we will have full details presented to you through our website and I think you’ll be very pleased with the savings you will see and the overall event we will have an opportunity to experience.

How Is Your Chapter Shaping-Up?
Every chapter of ASGA throughout the country has it’s own “flavor.”  Some chapters lean heavily on golf play, others on social aspects.  Northern chapters, for some unknown reason, play fewer rounds per year than Southern chapters.  Must have something to do with climate.  Regardless, we’re all in this for similar reasons: to add an aspect to our lives that likely wasn’t there before.

Your chapter’s new leadership for 2017 should be in place by now, but consider one thing: for chapters to be able to provide the best service to its membership, there must be some level of organization.  To see what has worked best over the years, look at the Organizational Chart promulgated through your bylaws.  Do you have this structure or are you just “winging it?”  You’ll find things work much better when volunteerism is organized.
