

CELEBRATING 33 YEARS OF SINGLES GOLF® IN AMERICA

PINEHURST

SINGLES GOLF

Pinehurst Chapter - American Singles Golf Association — May 2025

IT'S TEE TIME!!!

From the Prez

Taxes are done!! Spring is here!! The weather is conducive for everyone to get out the clubs and go golfing. The grass is getting thicker, giving those of us in the fairways good lies and those of us elsewhere, more of a challenge. (We shall commiserate with those who have hit their shots where angels fear to tread.) The Azaleas are so vividly bright, the trees and bushes are blossoming and the pine pollen is finally abating. Top down weather!! Let's play!!

While May Day is barely given a nod nowadays we do celebrate other holidays. Cinco De Mayo is a huge day in Mexico, and we have more than a few celebrants locally. I'm pretty sure that "National Porcupine Day" is not a Hallmark creation. I don't know who should get stuck with that credit.

Mother's Day is an official time to honor those who have taken on the task of caring for, encouraging, teaching, nurturing, and all those innumerable things that Mothers do for their children. Awesome!!

When I was a kid I thought that Memorial

Day was a day for parades, picnics and the beginning of the Little League Baseball season. Now, having been in the military, and living here where there are so many with ties to the services, I have a much deeper appreciation for those who have made the ultimate sacrifice for our nation. Also, for those who took those risks, and were in places where they might have died, but survived, some with physical scars and injuries and many with emotional scars. And let us not forget those spouses, parents, siblings, friends and children who stayed home praying for the safety and return of the soldiers, sailors, etc..

We shall be visiting a few of our local courses where the conditioning was not conducive to enjoying the play, to see if playability has improved. We'll also check out The Carolina which has been shut down for years, but it seems that some of the holes have somehow been maintained well enough to play. If any of you has any suggestions for courses which would complement our play, please let us know.

When dealing with many of our local courses we have been able to enjoy a "group" discount. To do this the "group" needs to be more than a foursome or two. The more participants we have the more likely we'll be able to maintain our "group" discount. Some of our regular venues overlook the smaller turnouts because we support them during the off seasons (Winter and Summer) months. Some. I ask that you thank your officers for their dedication and intensity that they put into making Pinehurst such a wonderful Chapter.

As always, we welcome and encourage your suggestions, criticisms and accolades.

From the Fairways

With the warmer temps we are having better turnouts for our outings.

18 holes at Deercroft GC

Sadly, I wasn't able to join the play at Deercroft, but, Iseult Broglio, our newest member at the time, did enhance the event. I didn't get any scorecards but I had a verbal recounting of a few significant scores. Peggy made a par on the treacherous uphill 10th hole, but Jim Legg gets the Highlight of the Day honors as he made a birdie and followed up with a par on the next hole. Way to go, Jim!!!

9 holes at Longleaf G&FC

Again, I wasn't on hand but we did get another verbal report about Peggy's play - she had her best 9 hole score, EVER and she made a birdie on the sinister uphill par three 3rd hole!!! All who have "enjoyed" the sadistic 3rd recognize what a feat Peggy performed.

18 holes at Sanford Municipal Course

We opted for Average Stableford and Jim Legg teamed up with Dave Albanese, Peggy and I for the victory. Dave had 5 net birdies and a net eagle on the long, rolling ninth, just missing a natural birdie. Jim bagged 4 net birdies to go with 2 net eagles whilst Peggy tossed in 2 net eagles and a net birdie to help the cause. A close second were Susan, Lynn, Marcus and Ed. Lynn was out of sync (Ever been there?) yet still managed to just miss pars on the long 2nd and the tilted 14th. Marcus had a slick 40 on the opening 9, Ed probably played the best round of the day with a net 71, which included a net eagle and 4 net birds. Susan played the par 3's superbly, especially the Closest to the Pin hole where she just missed a natural bird. She did get the CTP Tiara. Good to see you out with us again, Susan - you brighten the day!! Not sure who gets the "Shot of the Day" trophy as Dave dropped in a 71 foot putt from the front fringe on the 15th hole. Jim jumped up to the challenge on the 16th where he wedged to 4 inches from 77 yards out. YOIKS!! But Jim followed up with a "Show Off" shot on the dastardly 18th. Facing a downhill lie to carry the water Jim slapped his shot into the opposite bank and made it hop up onto the fairway. Showoff!! To top the day off, we found an excellent place to eat after the round - a local brewery. OK, Rory had a better day, but not by much!!

9 holes at Midland CC

Peggy edged Ed out by a couple of strokes with Lynn one further back. Ed has some bragging rights though, as he recorded 4 gross pars, Dave Maytnier dropped in a par on the second hole, Kathy Schagel opened with a couple of pars and proceeded to snatch the Closest to the Pin Cup on #6. Peggy got up and down out of the bunker on #5 and made a solid 4 on the 8th. The Heroine of the Day easily went to Nancy Wilson, who hasn't played since November. She bombed her drives all day. She did have to be chastised about complaining that her drives were in the left center of the fairway instead of the right center. She did tough it out. We are not recommending taking a few months off to enhance you game, even though it worked for Nancy.

18 holes at 7 Lakes

Average Stableford was the Game of the Day. The course was not yet into mid season conditions, but most of it was pretty good. That didn't slow down Tom Carrier as he hit drives that might make Jamie jealous. Tom had short irons to the 17th and 18th greens. That would be for his second shots, not third like us mere mortals. The speed of the greens was a trifle erratic (That's MY story!!) which led to difficult scoring. Tom, Peggy and I took the crown as Peggy snatched an eagle and 4 birdies to supplement Tom's game. Lynn had three net birds as did Lois Pollard, now our newest member, who matched her. Ed had a couple too. But the Showman of the Day goes to Marcus as he played the par threes superbly, including a fine up and down on the 16th, and added a couple more 3's to his card on the par 4 9th and the cantankerous (Don't believe me?? Come and test it!) 14th.

9 holes on the par 3 Azalea at Pinewild CC

The tees need a little time to regrow - they have been seeded and we could see the new grass getting started. With the warmer weather they may get rambunctious. We'll be back to test them next month.

Dave Maytnier eased out to a two shot victory over Joe, Kathy and yours truly. Kathy began with a par, Joe had 3 of them and, while Peggy hit some good shots she didn't convert them to good scores. Doug got some time to add his humor and enthusiasm to our group and tossed in a couple of pars. Nancy brought Margaret Young (A blast from the past - hope to see you again, Margaret!) along and they both made a couple of pars. Martez hit some fine shots and John McClory, dropped in 4 pars just missing a couple of birdies. Not bad, John, for the first time on this track. Nancy and John wore the CTP wreaths.

As always, we encourage your feedback - don't be shy.

Words of Wisdom - Fun at family reunions is a relative thing.

Rules of Golf Review: I've got a blind shot and my partner is helping me aim. Where can he stand when I hit?

By Ron Kaspriske, GolfDigest.com

Back in 2019, shortly after the USGA and R&A enacted major revisions to the Rules of Golf, there were a few instances on the professional tours when players faced penalties for violating Rule 10.2b\(4\). In short, there was a lot of confusion about when golfers should be penalized for having their caddie stand in the restricted area as they made a stroke. The intent of rules makers was to ensure caddies could not stand behind players as they took their stance to hit a shot. Aiming, at that point in the process, needed to be something golfers did on their own.

What made things confusing and frustrating for golfers was the early 2019 interpretation of when a player had begun to take his or her stance and where the caddie was standing at that time. To this day, it's perfectly legal for a caddie to stand behind a player on the line of play as the shot is being evaluated, but the caddie has to move away as the player prepares to swing. There was at least one instance on the PGA Tour early that year when Denny McCarthy was initially penalized for violating 10.2b\(4\), but video evidence made it clear he wasn't beginning to take his stance before his caddie moved. The PGA Tour rescinded the penalty for McCarthy.

You can read all about the early days of this new rule here, but if you want to know more about the current rules regarding of line of play and directional information as it relates to average golfers who don't have caddies, read on.

Let's start by getting into the scenario in our headline. Say you're playing a four-ball match on a course you're not familiar with. You have a blind shot into a green but know there is out-of-bounds somewhere along the left side of the hole, but you can't see it because of a hill. Is it permissible for your partner in the match to stand on top of the hill to help "guide" you away from hitting your next shot out-of-bounds?

The short answer is that your partner can stand on the hill to indicate where the markers are, but he or she has to move away from that spot before the stroke is made. As long as your partner moved before you hit, there's no penalty. If he or she stood there while you swung, your side would lose the hole in match play or you would be assessed a two-shot penalty in stroke play if anyone stayed in that spot while you swung.

Where this rule of helping a golfer hit a shot gets even more murky for many is understanding that it extends beyond the line of play. The definition of line of play is the line where the player intends their ball to go after a stroke, including the area on that line that is a reasonable distance up above the ground and on either side of it. In other words, the line of play is not necessarily a straight line between two points; it might be a curved line based on where the player intends the ball to go.

OK, so what if your partner gets out of the way before the stroke but leaves a hat on the spot where you should be hitting your next shot? Well, that's also a penalty.

You might think that, since the out-of-bounds markers are not on your line of play, there is nothing wrong with marking that position by having your partner stand on a spot between you and the markers. Unfortunately, that's still a violation of Rule 10.2. In addition to specifying "line of play" as a no-go for aiming help, you also can't assist in aiming for "other directional information." The two exceptions are getting out of the way before the shot and providing public information in relation to the position of an object. An example would be pointing out that a tall tree you can see over a hill is on the same line as the flagstick.

The smartest way to handle the situation in the headline would have been to have your partner give you the line to play away from the OB markers and then move away before you hit.

To all ASGA Members – Please Read!

Your chapter board will NEVER send you an email requesting funds by way of a gift card. Always, always use due diligence when responding to an email. See below “How to Protect Yourself”

Spoofing and Phishing

Spoofing

Spoofing is when someone disguises an email address, sender name, phone number, or website URL—often just by changing one letter, symbol, or number—to convince you that you are interacting with a trusted source.

For example, you might receive an email that looks like it's from your boss, a company you've done business with, or even from someone in your family—but it actually isn't.

Criminals count on being able to manipulate you into believing that these spoofed communications are real, which can lead you to download malicious software, send money, or disclose personal, financial, or other sensitive information.

Phishing

Phishing schemes often use spoofing techniques to lure you in and get you to take the bait. These scams are designed to trick you into giving information to criminals that they shouldn't have access to.

In a phishing scam, you might receive an email that appears to be from a legitimate business and is asking you to update or verify your personal information by replying to the email or visiting a website. The web address might look similar to one you've used before. The email may be convincing enough to get you to take the action requested.

But once you click on that link, you're sent to a spoofed website that might look nearly identical to the real thing—like your bank or credit card site—and asked to enter sensitive information like passwords, credit card numbers, banking PINs, etc. These fake websites are used solely to steal your information.

Phishing has evolved and now has several variations that use similar techniques:

- Vishing scams happen over the phone, voice email, or VoIP (voice over Internet Protocol) calls.
- Smishing scams happen through SMS (text) messages.
- Pharming scams happen when malicious code is installed on your computer to redirect you to fake websites.

How to Protect Yourself

- Remember that companies generally don't contact you to ask for your username or password.
- Don't click on anything in an unsolicited email or text message. Look up the company's phone number on your own (don't use the one a potential scammer is providing) and call the company to ask if the request is legitimate.
- Carefully examine the email address, URL, and spelling used in any correspondence. Scammers use slight differences to trick your eye and gain your trust.
- Be careful what you download. Never open an email attachment from someone you don't know and be wary of email attachments forwarded to you.
- Set up two-factor (or multi-factor) authentication on any account that allows it, and never disable it.
- Be careful with what information you share online or on social media. By openly sharing things like pet names, schools you attended, family members, and your birthday, you can give a scammer all the information they need to guess your password or answer your security questions.
- Remember – If you are doubtful there's probably a good reason. If you're not sure, call to the person in your chapter who is supposedly sending the email.
