

CELEBRATING 34 YEARS OF SINGLES GOLF® IN AMERICA

Asheville Singles Golf

Asheville Chapter - American Singles Golf Association — March 2026

MONTHLY MEETING WILL BE MONDAY, MARCH 2ND AT HICKORY TAVERN IN BILTMORE PARK

Note

We try to post all events and any updates/changes to the website:

www.asheville.singlesgolf.com under the Chapter News and Activities Section.

Please refer to this site for all details since any changes will be reflected there as well as a list of attendees, etc.

In addition, look at the calendar section for future months to make sure you mark your personal calendars in advance for anything you might be interested in.

Summary

No news to report for the month of February. Those who did not escape the cold by fleeing the country or the state for a more moderate climate were occupied shoveling snow, sliding around on ice, and/or other activities.

For details about these events go to our website: www.asheville.singlesgolf.com
Scroll through the calendar section at the bottom to see additional items.

Our next Monthly Meeting will be Monday, March 2nd at Hickory Tavern in Biltmore Park

The Best Way to Handle Nerves on the Golf Course is Also the Simplest

When we push against a basic instinct, we risk making things worse

By Sam Weinman, GolfDigest.com

Think about how often this happens: You're playing a match, and the hole is over, but just for kicks, you mindlessly roll a six-footer straight into the cup.

Now think about how often this happens: You face an even shorter putt during a big moment in a round, and now the hole feels as small as a thimble.

This is why the most challenging golf conditions are not the kind featuring wind or rain, but self-doubt and panic. The presence of stress on its own isn't the issue for golfers. The real trouble starts when we interpret it to mean something is wrong.

"Some people get stressed about the idea of being stressed," said Dr. Jeremy Jamieson, a professor of psychology at the University of Rochester and a leading authority on stress. "Like that the only way I can do well is if I get rid of this stress. And so now you're spending time, you're spending energy, spending resources on just trying to get rid of your stress response when you don't need to. It's something that's there to help you."

Two similar golf shots triggering vastly different reactions is a reflection of our intricate stress systems, which we explore in our most recent "Mind Games" video. This is where nerves come from, but golfers commonly interpret the sensation as misplaced. We can accept the need for a "fight or flight" response—racing heart, sweaty palms—when being chased down by a bear. But why do we feel the same thing when simply trying to save par?

As Jamieson says, the reaction traces to an earlier era, when a heightened sense of danger primed our bodies to protect against threats. "We're kind of catching up still in the evolution," he said. Maybe golf isn't about survival, yet our brains still recognize something important is at stake.

"Our greatest need as humans is to be loved and accepted, and we have an ego that's always threatened, always comparing, never satisfied," said Jim Murphy, a performance coach and author who works with a number of tour players. "The fear is that if I miss this putt, if I perform poorly and get a bad score, then I'm gonna get rejected, which is our greatest fear."

It's only when golfers understand why this anxiety surfaces that they can develop strategies on how to respond, the most important being accepting nerves versus trying to suppress them. The temptation is to want those unpleasant feelings to disappear. But when we resist against a core human instinct, we tend to make things worse, because the signal we're sending our bodies is we're overmatched.

"Your stress response is about taking care of that thing that could harm you," Jamieson says. "But if we feel like we're worried about something, like, 'I can't handle this' or 'I don't have the ability to take on this challenge,' we're just telling our bodies like, 'Hey, I don't have the resources to address this demand.'"

Your chapter newsletter follows after the following pages . . .

ASGA Annual Dues are $99.00. Do you want LOWER DUES?

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE ONE YEAR OF FREE DUES?

You likely joined the American Singles Golf Association because you wanted to meet more singles and play more golf. We can't help you with your golf swing, however, we're on a mission to grow your chapter's membership. Golf season is upon us . . . are you onboard to grow your chapter or are you satisfied with your current membership level?

Here's the plan:

- 1) on the following page, you'll see a revised "Single? Play Golf?" sign. It now has five (5) tear-off tabs instead of eight (8).
- 2) You write-in your identification (either your member number or first initial + last name) on each of the tabs. Use scissors to cut the tabs apart.
- 3) You print as many signs as you wish, keep them in the front seat of your car along with some push pins and post them anywhere you're permitted to post, e.g. golf shop bulletin boards, golf shop restrooms, driving ranges, stores, etc. If you would like ASGA National to print five (5) yellow signs for you, please let us know by emailing Irene@SinglesGolf.com or calling 980-833-6450 from 9am-1:45pm, M-F, Eastern.
- 4) For every three (3) people who join using your name or ID on the yellow sign, you'll receive 12-months of ASGA membership. Note: your name or member number, as the referrer, must be submitted with the new member's application. No exceptions. No retroactivity. Please do not add your own name to an application form. It must be completed only the by the member currently joining and completing the application.
- 5) New members can join over the phone, at our website (SinglesGolf.com/join), fax, etc., however, they MUST use your member number or name at the time of joining as the person who referred the new member. Again, no exceptions to this policy.
- 6) ASGA National will keep track of how many new members you get credit for and will automatically add 12-months to your membership. Please, no slanting of these rules

Be a Hero in Your Chapter.
Get the signs printed and get them hanging!
*(and remind others to participate)

SINGLE? PLAY GOLF?

The Asheville Chapter of the American Singles Golf Association WANTS YOU!

We're 2,500 members in 50 cities and we're ALL ABOUT HAVING FUN! So if you're single (i.e. divorced, widowed, legally separated or never married) and enjoy meeting others through the game of golf, you're invited to inquire about joining by calling the American Singles Golf Association at 1-888-465-3628 (1-TRIPLE-EIGHT-GOLFMATE) or visit SinglesGolf.com.

IN ADDITION, WE CAN SEND YOU FREE BUSINESS CARDS!

As you have seen from the previous two (2) pages of this newsletter, ASGA National is committed to seeing your chapter grow. We believe by asking each individual member for help, your chapter will grow its membership.

Besides using just the yellow signs to gain more members in your local chapter, upon request we will also provide you with ASGA business cards as shown below. More can be sent to you if needed, but we'll start out by sending you 25 business cards that you can give to anyone you believe might be a potential member. Are you out and about and see someone wearing a golf shirt or hat? Start a conversation: tell them you're a part of a local club for singles who play golf and simply ask "are you single?" Even if they aren't, chances are they know a golfer who is. Give them a card that's pre-filled with you name (or member #) and contact info.

Remember, you get free dues for referring 3 new folks who join!

Below shows how your business card appears. They don't come to you automatically, you'll have to order them. E-mail Irene@SinglesGolf or call 980-833-6450 (9am—1:30pm, Mon-Fri, Eastern) for your free 25 cards.
