Rules of Golf Review: Understanding 'backstopping' and when it's a penalty

By Ron Kaspriske, GolfDigest.com

Back in 2019, the LPGA Tour found itself in the spotlight for a curious ruling involving two tour players and a practice called "backstopping." If you've never heard the term, tour pros commonly use it to describe purposefully leaving a ball in place on the putting green instead of marking it. The thought is that it can potentially help another player who is hitting an approach shot onto the green. If the player off the green hits a shot that is too hot, the ball on the green might stop it from getting into real trouble.

Rule 15.3 covers this practice and, as you might guess, it's a penalty (two strokes). Getting back to the incident on the LPGA Tour, Ariya Jutanugarn and Amy Olson were paired in the same group at the Honda LPGA Thailand and reached the final hole of the second round with Jutanugarn's ball on the green and Olson's just off. Jutanugarn did not mark her ball and Olson's ensuing chip struck it. The incident got a lot of attention and scrutiny from LPGA officials because the two players fist-bumped on the green, suggesting there might have been some collusion.

The LPGA found in its investigation that the two players did not agree to leave the ball in place and they weren't penalized.

Setting aside your opinion on whether they did or did not collude to backstop, there was a bunch of talk on the pro tours about the practice in the following months, with major championship winner Jimmy Walker saying he left his ball on the green from time to time to help other players.

What you need to know about Rule 15.3 is that in stroke play, regardless of whether you knew the rule or not, you can't agree to leave your ball to help another player—or vice versa. Ignorance is not going to get either of you out of a two-stroke penalty. Worse, if you both know it's illegal and backstop anyway, you both would be DQd under Rule 1.3b\(1\) for deliberately ignoring a rule.

Interestingly, however, in match play there is no penalty if you do it for your opponent. That's because "the outcome of any benefit that may come from the agreement affects only their match," a clarification (15.3a/2) to the rule states.

The smart move under Rule 15.3 is to mark and lift your ball if you think it might help another player who is about to chip. Keep in mind that in stroke play, you also can elect to hit the putt before the player chips, because there is no penalty for playing out of order.

Returning to the example of what happened in the LPGA tournament, procedurally if there was no intent to backstop and the ball on the green was struck, that ball must be replaced at its original spot. Meanwhile, the ball that hit the resting ball on the putting surface is played as it lies.

Happy
Fathers
Day!

ASGA Annual Dues are $99.00. Do you want LOWER DUES?

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE ONE YEAR OF FREE DUES?

You likely joined the American Singles Golf Association because you wanted to meet more singles and play more golf. We can't help you with your golf swing, however, we're on a mission to grow your chapter's membership. Golf season is upon us . . . are you onboard to grow your chapter or are you satisfied with your current membership level?

Here's the plan:

- 1) on the following page, you'll see a revised "Single? Play Golf?" sign. It now has five (5) tear-off tabs instead of eight (8).
- 2) You write-in your identification (either your member number or first initial + last name) on each of the tabs. Use scissors to cut the tabs apart.
- 3) You print as many signs as you wish, keep them in the front seat of your car along with some push pins and post them anywhere you're permitted to post, e.g. golf shop bulletin boards, golf shop restrooms, driving ranges, stores, etc. If you would like ASGA National to print five (5) yellow signs for you, please let us know by emailing Irene@SinglesGolf.com or calling 980-833-6450 from 9am-1:45pm, M-F, Eastern.
- 4) For every three (3) people who join using your name or ID on the yellow sign, you'll receive 12-months of ASGA membership. Note: your name or member number, as the referrer, must be submitted with the new member's application. No exceptions. No retroactivity. Please do not add your own name to an application form. It must be completed only the by the member currently joining and completing the application.
- 5) New members can join over the phone, at our website (SinglesGolf.com/join), fax, etc., however, they MUST use your member number or name at the time of joining as the person who referred the new member. Again, no exceptions to this policy.
- 6) ASGA National will keep track of how many new members you get credit for and will automatically add 12-months to your membership. Please, no slanting of these rules

Be a Hero in Your Chapter.
Get the signs printed and get them hanging!
*(and remind others to participate)

SINGLE? PLAY GOLF?

IN ADDITION, WE CAN SEND YOU FREE BUSINESS CARDS!

As you have seen from the previous two (2) pages of this newsletter, ASGA National is committed to seeing your chapter grow. We believe by asking each individual member for help, your chapter will grow its membership.

Besides using the yellow signs to gain more members in your local chapter, upon request we will also provide you with ASGA business cards. More can be sent to you if needed, but we'll start out by sending you half a dozen business cards that you can give to anyone you believe might be a potential member. Are you out and about and see someone wearing a golf shirt or hat? Start a conversation: tell them you're a part of a local club for singles who play golf and simply ask "are you single?" Even if they aren't, chances are they know a golfer who is. Give them a card that's pre-filled with you name (or member #) and contact info.

Remember, you get free dues for referring 3 new folks who join!

They don't come to you automatically, you'll have to order them. E-mail Irene@SinglesGolf or call 980-833-6450 (9am—1:30pm, Eastern Tues-Thurs) for your free cards.
