

ASGA-Denver 2022 Multi-Chapter Event (MCE) INFORMATION SHEET

“ROCKY MOUNTAIN HIGH – FAIRWAYS TO HEAVEN 2022”

On behalf of ASGA Denver Chapter, we look forward to hosting participants from across the United States in beautiful and historic Glenwood Springs!!! We look forward to sharing lasting memories with you. Here are some tips regarding this event as you are planning your travels:

Transportation – Glenwood Springs is located 157 miles from Denver International Airport (2 hours 40 min) via I-70, 87 miles from Grand Junction Airport (1 hour 16 min) via I-70, and 41 miles (51 min) from Aspen/Pitkin County Airport.

Travel times assume light traffic. Denver rush hour traffic on I-70 starts at about 3:00 PM and ends between 6:00 and 6:30 PM. Add another 30-45 minutes to your drive time.

If you are not planning to arrive until Friday, mountain weekend traffic (Friday afternoon – Sunday afternoon) leaving DIA and returning to DIA can also cause travel delays. Arriving on Thursday and leaving on Monday avoids most traffic issues.

The easiest and least expensive means of transportation from either Denver or Grand Junction is to rent a car. There are limo services available from both these airports, but these services are expensive. Roaring Forks Transportation Authority (RFTA) has bus service from Aspen/Pitkin County Airport (www.rfta.com).

Schedule of events

The base package for the MCE includes hotel accommodations on Friday and Saturday nights, dinner and dancing on Friday night at Hotel Colorado, dinner and awards presentation at Lakota Canyon Golf Club and Saturday, 18-holes of golf at Lakota Canyon on Saturday and 18-holes of golf at River Valley Ranch on Sunday.

Lunch is not provided on either day. However, all courses have lunch available in their respective grills.
