We’re returning to Penn National again, because of the great golf and because it remains a great value year after year...

...and like last year, we’re making it a reunion event. So reserve your spot early, then spread the word, so you don’t miss out!!

Penn National is a wonderful golf destination featuring two distinctly different golf courses. The Founders Course is a traditional tree-lined course. Iron Forge is more wide open with breathtaking mountain views. We will stay onsite at the Penn National Inn and play both courses over the weekend. The pool will also be open for those of you who don’t want to play golf every day, so bring your bathing suit and favorite beverage for a relaxing afternoon! Following dinner each night, we will gather at the fire pit to whine (or boast) about our golfing prowess!! So plan to bring your personal beverages, snacks, and desserts to share! The hospitality suite is also ours to use.

For this three-day event, we will try and accomodate pairing requests. Pairings will generally be what we have done in years past.
