

gratuity for meals. Additional tips for maids, cart attendants, and other service personnel are at your discretion. Notify event coordinators if your plans change. There are NO refunds after the deadline unless someone can fill your spot.

Breakfast is back to normal with the breakfast buffet. For those whose comfort level is not there yet, sandwiches, yogurt, fruit, juice, coffee, and tea will be available for takeout.

The dining room is open as well. They will have a full dinner menu for indoor and outdoor seating. You may also get your dinner to go, to eat in your room or any common area you feel comfortable at.

Seating for both is back at 100%

The bar is fully open.

Please familiarize yourself with the liquor rules for dining indoors.

Prize contests are yet to be determined

The hospitality suite is available to us, as is the fire pit for bragging and highlights. It is suggested you bring your usual tailgating chair to be comfortable.

The pool is open! It's a BYOB area. No glass containers are permitted.

****We are supposed to have the whole resort to ourselves, but depending on the numbers, because of continued concerns, Mark and I may have to release rooms back to Penn, so they can rent them out. That's why it's important to register early, to guarantee your spot*******